

Reduced rate activities for claimants of DLA

Free cinema entranced for carers when accompanying disabled person, with a CEA card which costs £5.50 for a whole year. These are accepted nationwide, including in the Vue and Cineworld. To claim go to this website <http://www.ceacard.co.uk>.

Oxfordshire libraries offer up to 3 free DVD or audio book rentals per week. If you take your DLA award letter to any of the libraries, they will upgrade the disabled person's library card.

Jambinos indoor play centre (Oxford) offer reduced entry price of £2.95 for disabled children. Just take a copy of your DLA award letter. The website is <http://www.jambinos.com>.

Snakes and ladders indoor play centre (Abingdon) offer reduced price entry of £2.50 (remember £1 for the supervising adult) Disabled rates are not advertised so you have to ask and show a copy of your DLA award letter. The website is <http://www.snakes-and-ladders.co.uk>.

Rugrats and half pints indoor play and sensory centre (Banbury) run a disability session on the first Tuesday of every month. Entry to this session is £3 per child including siblings. The website is <http://www.rugratsandhalfpints.com>.

Lakeside superbowl (Banbury) offer reduced rate bowling for the disabled person and carer of £1.75 each. Proof of disability is required. The website is <http://www.lakeside-superbowl.co.uk>.

Bowlplex (Oxford) offer reduced rate bowling for the disabled person and carer. This cost £2.50 per person off peak and £3 per person peak. Proof of disability is required. The website is <http://www.bowlplex.co.uk>.

There are so many swimming pools in Oxfordshire that it's best to just ask at their reception desk for reduced rates and take your DLA award letter.