Voirrey Carr was a successful English teacher and Head of Department for over 25 years. Most recently, as an Area Service Manager for Learning Difficulties and Disabilities (LDD) for Oxfordshire County Council, Voirrey has supported many primary and secondary schools in developing their provision for pupils with LDD. She has delivered extensive training on all types of needs and on the requirements of the DDA and Equalities Act. Voirrey enjoys working with parents and was chair of OASIS, Oxfordshire Autistic Society for Information and Support for 13 years.

In addition to her degree and teaching qualification, Voirrey holds a Postgraduate Certificate of Advanced Professional Practice in teaching children with Autism. She is fully committed to working to support all those who face barriers to achievement.

Voirrey Carr is now building up an SEN and Disability Service for organisations, individuals and families needing specialist support.

Sample Services offered:

IN SCHOOLS

- SENCO and TA cover
- Literacy and Language teaching
- Guidance on effective interventions for pupils with (e.g.) Literacy Difficulties, Asperger's Syndrome, Dyslexia and Dyspraxia .
- Support in revising policies and practice to comply with the Equalities Act and other key changes in legislation.

IN THE WORKPLACE

- Advocacy for individuals affected by disability.
- Support at meetings between employer and employee.
- 'On the job' mentoring and job coaching for disabled employees
- Staff training on the implications of specific disabilities and advice on how to support employees

IN THE FAMILY

- Supporting visits to schools and review meetings.
- Help with communication to schools and other agencies
- Future planning: developing independence and accessing support
- Question and answer sessions/group and individual support for families and individuals affected by disability.

In evaluations, Voirrey is regularly described as immensely knowledgeable, practical, and inspirational. She works hard to provide clients with an individualised service.

If you are interested in discussing your needs on an informal basis (absolutely no obligation or charge for an initial discussion) please contact Voirrey either by email or by telephone.
